

City of Brookfield

This aerial photograph, provided by the City of Brookfield Assessor, shows an agricultural parcel within the city's boundaries, which is owned by Water Street Land, LLC. The parcel is located in an office and limited commercial/residential zoning district.

City of Eau Claire

This photograph, taken in February 2010, shows an agricultural parcel in the City of Eau Claire. The snow-covered parcel, adjacent to a state highway, a hotel, and a retail establishment, is located in a commercial zoning district, as the “Land for Sale” sign suggests.

City of Middleton

This photograph, taken in July 2010, shows an agricultural parcel in the City of Middleton. The parcel, which is less than one acre in size, is part of the Middleton Ridge at Misty Valley subdivision. In 2009, there were 72 parcels classified and assessed as agricultural within this subdivision, most of which were owned by Graber Valley, LLC, which identifies itself as a real estate or property development business.

City of Platteville

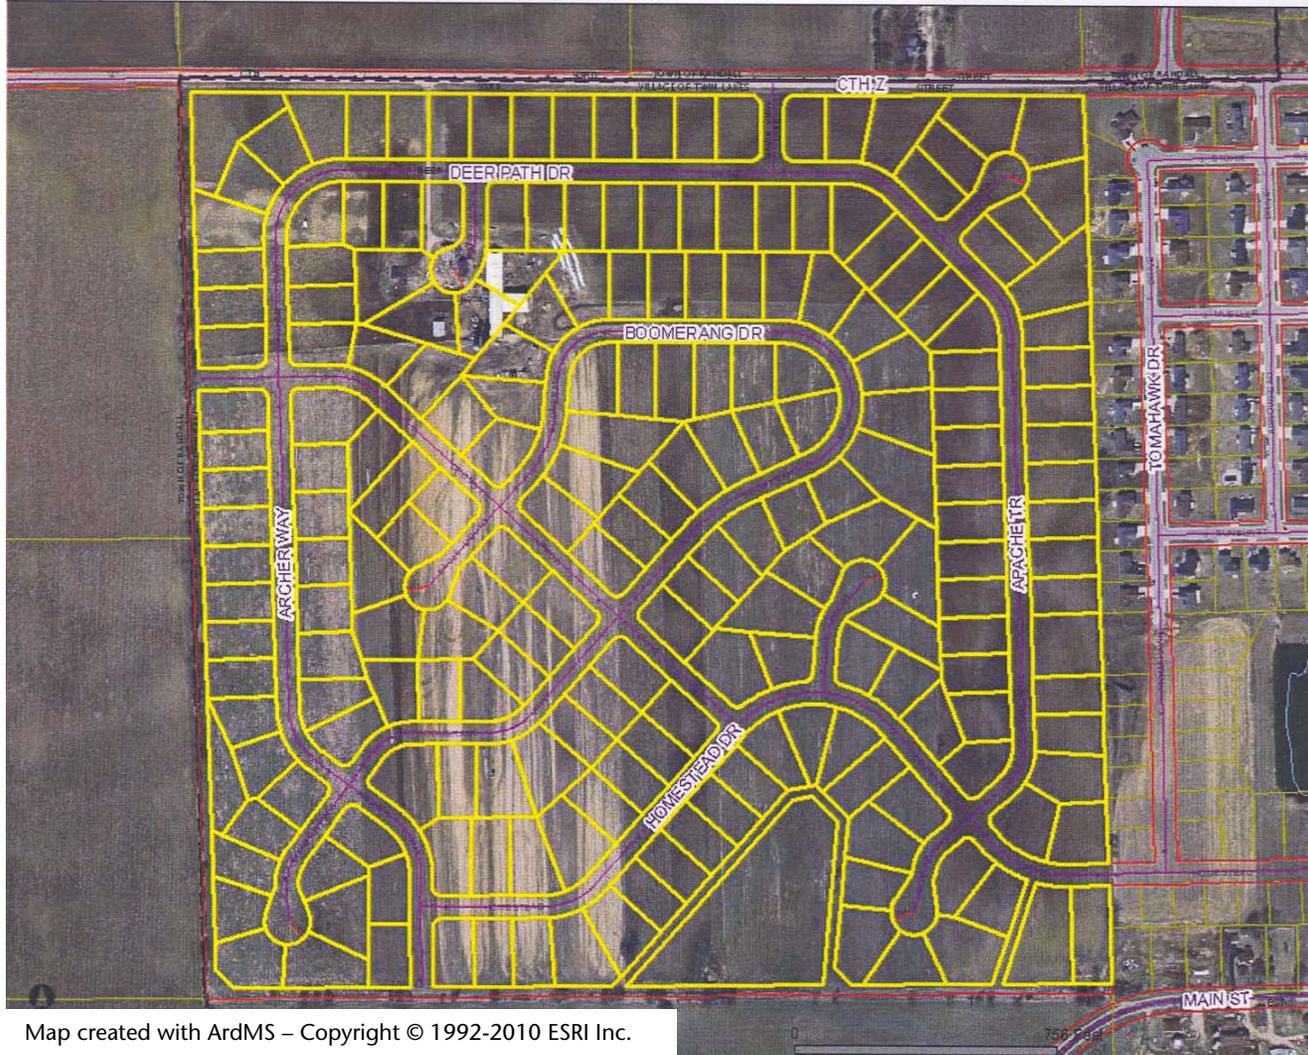

This photograph, taken in March 2010, shows an agricultural parcel in the City of Platteville owned by Platteville Development Group, Inc., which identifies itself as a real estate or property development business. The parcel is located in a commercial zoning district.

City of Sun Prairie

This photograph, taken in July 2010, shows an agricultural parcel in the City of Sun Prairie. The parcel is located in a planned development zoning district.

Village of Twin Lakes

Map created with ArdMS – Copyright © 1992-2010 ESRI Inc.

This aerial photograph shows 207 distinct agricultural parcels in a subdivision in the Village of Twin Lakes. The parcels are owned by Hawk View Properties, LLC, which identifies itself as a real estate or property development business. The plat lines are shown in yellow.
