Madison- State Representative Joel Kitchens (R-Sturgeon Bay) released the following statement regarding the Door/Kewaunee Legislative Days event at the State Capitol:

“I am proud and happy to have the Door/Kewaunee Legislative Days here in Madison for the next two days. More than 125 citizen delegates from Door and Kewaunee counties traveled to Madison to advocate on issues important to our counties. The citizen delegates come from a wide variety of backgrounds ranging from residents and business owners to elected officials.

The Door/Kewaunee legislative agenda includes:

1. Support for Additional Funding for Improving Rural Broadband;
2. Protect the Public’s Drinking Water in Our At-Risk Karst Geo-Region;
3. Protect Water Quality of Door/Kewaunee Rivers;
4. School Start Date: Oppose Repeal of Statewide Standard;
5. Consistent and Adequate Funding for the Harbor Assistance Program.

“The Door/Kewaunee Legislative Days is a great opportunity to showcase the values and unique issues of our counties. I look forward to meeting with all the delegates and I thank them for the continued dedication to our area!”
