Rep. Kitchens Announces District Listening Sessions on Budget

Madison – State Representative Joel Kitchens (R-Sturgeon Bay) today announced a series of in-district listening sessions focusing on the state’s 2015-17 biennial budget.

Recently, Governor Walker unveiled his proposal for the State of Wisconsin’s two-year budget. Now that the proposed spending plan is in front of the Legislature for review, Rep. Kitchens will be hosting a series of listening sessions around the 1st Assembly District to solicit feedback on the budget from his constituents. Joining Rep. Kitchens will be Rep. Schraa (R-Oshkosh), a member of the Joint Committee on Finance.

“In unveiling his proposal, Governor Walker has provided us in the Legislature a starting point, from which we can create a budget that continues to move Wisconsin forward,” said Rep. Kitchens. “It is now imperative that my colleagues and I review the budget proposal and find ways to ensure that it meets the needs and priorities of the people in the 1st District.”

Rep. Kitchens will be available to meet with constituents at the locations and times listed below:
