Rep. Steffen Committed to Growing Jobs, Lowering Taxes and Eliminating Fraud

Madison—Today Representative David Steffen (R-Green Bay) took the oath of office to officially begin his first term in the 102nd Wisconsin State Legislature. He will serve as the State Representative for the 4th Assembly District. Rep. Steffen will maintain a strong focus on creating jobs by enhancing Wisconsin's business climate, reducing taxes, and eliminating fraud within our state programs to ensure responsible stewardship of taxpayer dollars.

"I am excited and honored to be serving the people of the fourth district. As the voice of my constituents, I will work to ensure their needs and concerns are heard in Madison. Creating jobs, equipping our workforce with necessary training, and reducing taxes are all vital to growing our economy," said Rep. Steffen.

Rep. Steffen has been named the Vice-Chair of the Energy and Utilities Committee and will also serve as a member on the Insurance, Jobs and Economy, Urban and Local Affairs, and Ways and Means committees.

"The knowledge and experience I have gained working in local government as a county supervisor and village trustee, as well as my background as a small business owner will allow me to bring valuable insight and ideas to each of these committees," commented Rep. Steffen.

The 102nd Wisconsin State Legislature will be comprised of 63 Assembly Republicans, the largest GOP Assembly majority since 1957.

"I look forward to joining my colleagues in the Legislature and continuing the work of the previous session to keep Wisconsin moving forward," finished Rep. Steffen.

Rep. Steffen was joined by his friends and family at the inauguration ceremony held in the Assembly chambers on Monday afternoon.

The representative's office is located on 21 North in the Wisconsin State Capitol. He can be reached at (608)266-5840 or by email at Rep.Steffen@legis.wisconsin.gov.
