Rep. Katsma Attends Sheboygan Organization's Award Ceremony with Gov. Walker

Madison... Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Sheboygan was recognized by Governor Scott Walker at an award ceremony in the Capitol today.

The Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs awarded a grant in the amount of $3,000 to the organization to help provide financial assistance to Wisconsin veterans and their families. Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Sheboygan was among 25 nonprofit organizations in the state to receive awards.

"I am very appreciative that the state of Wisconsin understands the importance of encouraging local groups to support our servicemembers and families," said State Representative Terry Katsma (R-Oostburg), who attended the event. "I am proud of the efforts being made by Consumer Credit Counseling Service to deliver assistance to Wisconsin's veterans who sacrifice so much for all of us."
