Rep. Zimmerman Re-Appointed to the Budget Committee

(Madison)- Representative Shannon Zimmerman (R-River Falls) has been re-appointed to the Joint Committee on Finance, the Legislature’s influential budget writing committee.

“This is great news for Western Wisconsin to once again have a seat at the table,” said Rep. Zimmerman. “As a self-made business man, I’ve made deals with people around the world, and I know that my colleagues and I will work to find common ground on what’s best for Western Wisconsin and the state as a whole.”

The Joint Committee on Finance is a 16-member standing committee of the Wisconsin Legislature, with the responsibility to review all state appropriations and revenues. After the Governor introduces his budget, the bill is introduced into the Committee for review.

Rep. Shannon Zimmerman will serve alongside with fellow Republicans: Rep. Mark Born (R-Beaver Dam), Rep. Tony Kurtz (R-Wonewoc), Rep. Jessie Rodriguez (R-Oak Creek), Rep. Terry Katsma (R-Oostburg) and Rep. Alex Dallman (R-Green Lake).

“These six representatives have a depth of knowledge and experience that will serve Wisconsin taxpayers well when crafting the next two-year budget,” said Speaker Vos. “We can be assured they’ll work diligently to craft conservative solutions to the fiscal issues our state is currently facing.”

Shannon Zimmerman represents the 30th Assembly District which includes parts of St. Croix and Pierce Counties.
