State continues to head in right direction; more work to be done

Madison – Rep. Mary Czaja (R-Irma) issued the following statement after Governor Walker’s 2015 State of the State address:

“I am glad to hear the Governor’s optimism for the coming year. The vision he set forward tonight is a plan to reform and right-size government. By making our state agencies more efficient we will free up business owners to focus more of their time and efforts on building the local economy, instead of navigating the maze of government. This will bring direct relief to folks like us in the Northwoods, who live hundreds of miles from Madison and can’t afford to be constantly dealing with bureaucracy. As we anticipate the official state budget proposal coming in just a few weeks, I am looking forward to the work ahead as a member of the Joint Finance Committee.”
