REP. GARY HEBL STATEMENT ON BEING NAMED SIERRA CLUB CONSERVATION CHAMPION

(MADISON) – Today State Rep. Gary Hebl (D-Sun Prairie) shared his thanks to the Sierra Club for naming him a Conservation Champion for the 2015-16 session.

“I am grateful that the Sierra Club named me a Champion,” Hebl said. “Ensuring that we leave behind a sustainable planet for future generations is a top priority of mine in the Assembly.”

“Wisconsin has traditionally been at the forefront of the nation in regards to conservation issues,” Hebl continued. “We can count Aldo Leopold, Gaylord Nelson, and John Muir as local conservation heroes. Even though the Republican majority party ignores this important cause, we know that there are still people fighting for what’s right in Wisconsin.”

“These issues are near and dear to my heart as a lifelong resident of Wisconsin. Even though the current administration will not acknowledge how important environmental issues are, I promise to keep championing them so that Wisconsin remains a leader in conservation causes.”
