MADISON – Rep. Gordon Hintz (D-Oshkosh) released the following statement regarding Governor Walker’s announcement that he will be signing bills next week to allow the flow of unlimited, anonymous money into our political campaigns and to disband the state’s ethics and elections watchdog.

“How heartwarming that Governor and his special interest friends are able to come together during this holiday season to enact legislation that only benefits themselves, and no one else. Time and time again, Republicans have shown they will always place partisan power grabs above the best interests of the state.

“Just last week it was announced that household income continues to fall in most Wisconsin counties, but the majority could not be less interested in addressing that issue. The same goes for the dozens of other things Wisconsinites actually care about, like public school funding, affordable health care, raising the minimum wage, and skyrocketing student loan debt.

“While I appreciate the Governor wanting to distance himself from these bills and wait to sign them until his constituents are hopefully distracted preparing for the holidays, the fact is the best time to sign these bills is never.”
