Rep. Murphy Statement on Brown County Suing Outagamie County

(Madison)...State Representative Dave Murphy (R-Greenville) released the following statement regarding Brown County's decision to sue Outagamie County over library-usage fees:

“Last session I authored the Library Reimbursement law (2013 Wisconsin Act 157) to fix an unfair loophole that allowed some library systems, like Brown County, to bill other systems, like Outagamie, but not the other way around. The law was passed because this process was considered unfair.”

“Just because the law may allow for Brown County to sue over charges incurred before this law was passed, it does not mean that this is an appropriate action to take. After taking steps forward to come to a common-sense resolution, this lawsuit represents taking a step back.”
