Representative Quinn's Statement on Governor Walker's Budget Speech

MADISON – Representative Romaine Quinn (R-Rice Lake) called Governor Scott Walker's budget speech "a good start" to ensuring Wisconsin continues to make progress.

"I think it's important to remember that this is just a starting point – it's a starting point of a process that's going to happen over the next two, three, four, maybe even five month span, in the time it takes. But I think it's a good starting point: the governor laid out a vision to keep moving Wisconsin forward, down the direction it's been going. And again: returning the reserves to the taxpayers, while continuing to make sure that the money we are spending is prioritized and targeted and is accountable to the taxpayers. So again, it's a great starting point, with a lot of bold reforms - a good conversation to start, and I look forward to working with my colleagues as well as the governor's office, and hearing from my constituents over the next few months."
