Rep. Considine to Host UW Budget Listening Session at UW-Baraboo/Sauk County

Madison – This Saturday, Representative Dave Considine (D-Baraboo) will host a community listening session on the UW-Baraboo/Sauk County campus to discuss Governor Walker’s budget proposal for the UW System.

The listening session will also feature Senator Jon Erpenbach (D-Middleton). Students, faculty, staff, and community members are invited to share their thoughts about the proposed $300 million budget cuts, the transition to a public authority, and other state budget provisions affecting the UW System.

What: UW Budget Listening Session

Who: Rep. Dave Considine (D-Baraboo)
Sen. Jon Erpenbach (D-Middleton)
UW-Baraboo/Sauk County faculty, staff, administrators, students, and community members

When: Saturday, March 14th
10:00 AM – 2:00 PM

Where: Kenyon Giese Lecture Hall (A-4)
Lower Level, Aural Umhoefer Administration Building
Baraboo, WI 53913

“I am glad to partner with Sen. Erpenbach to host this open forum for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members to share how the UW System budget cuts will affect their work, their education, and our local economy. I look forward to a productive discussion on how we can support UW-Baraboo/Sauk County during the budget process and put our university community first,” said Rep. Considine.
