Rep. John Macco's Statement on Congressman Gallagher Resigning

Green Bay, Wisc. – Today, Congressman Mike Gallagher announced he will be resigning from Congress effective April 19th. Representative John Macco (R-Ledgeview) released the following statement:

“Thank you Congressman Gallagher for your years of service to the nation and the 8th Congressional District. Congressman Gallagher proved to be a principled and responsive legislator for our community. Congress would benefit from having more public servants like him. I wish him and his family well as they move forward into this next chapter.”
