Nygren Announces Staff for 2016

MADISON – Today, State Representative John Nygren (R-Marinette) issued the following statement on the announcement of his staff for the upcoming session.

“I am pleased to announce my staff, who will help advance the Assembly Republicans’ pro-jobs, pro-growth agenda this session. As the Assembly Co-Chair of Joint Finance, I will rely on my team’s knowledge and experience as we continue to work towards moving Wisconsin forward.”

Jennifer Malcore, Chief of Staff - Malcore, originally from Green Bay, has worked previously in Assembly leadership, handling communications and policy matters for Representative Nygren since 2013. Previously Malcore worked for former Caucus Chair, Representative Joan Ballweg. Malcore, a UW Green Bay graduate, worked for the Brown County Sheriff’s Department Jail Division prior to coming to the legislature

Caroline Krause, Budget and Policy Analyst – Krause continues on with Rep. Nygren, having worked as his Communications Director last session. A UW Madison graduate, Krause has campaign experience and previously worked as an aide to former Representative Duey Stroebel.

Chris Borgerding, Budget and Policy Analyst – Borgerding continues on with Rep. Nygren, having worked as his Legislative Aide last session. Borgerding, a UW Madison graduate, has campaign experience and previously worked as a Government Affairs Assistant for the Wisconsin Credit Union League and an aide to former Representative Jeff Stone.

Cali Romanello, Legislative Aide- Romanello joins the Nygren office from the office of Representative Mary Czaja where she served as a legislative aide during the past budget. Romanello is a graduate of UW Milwaukee and previously worked for former Representative Dean Kaufert.
