Representative Scott Allen begins representing 97th Assembly District

Realtor Scott Allen takes the oath of office to represent the south side of the City of Waukesha, Genesee, Mukwonago areas.

Madison--Realtor and former Alderman in Waukesha Scott Allen officially begins his first term in the Wisconsin State Legislature. Rep. Allen (R.-Waukesha) took the oath in a ceremony in the Assembly chambers Monday afternoon.

Rep. Allen will be serving as Vice-Chair of the Housing and Real Estate Committee. He is also a member of Environment and Forestry, Jobs and Economy, Small Business Development, and Veterans and Military Affairs Committees.

With his background as a Realtor, Rep. Allen has an understanding of customer service and effective communication which will serve him well in dealing with constituent concerns.

Joining Rep. Allen at the ceremony were his wife Angila and daughters Christine and Ellie. Rep. Allen is one of 63 Assembly Republicans, the largest GOP Assembly majority since 1957.

Rep. Allen's office is located at 8 West in the Wisconsin State Capitol. He can be reached by email: scott.allen@legis.wisconsin.gov or calling (608) 266-8580.
