A Note from Rep. Allen

Next up in the Budget Process: Public Hearings

Once Joint Finance Committee has completed the agency briefings, it will then begin the process of public hearings. During the last two weeks of March the committee will visit four communities outside of Madison, in the proverbial "four corners of the state," to gather information and input from Wisconsinites. Final arrangements are being made and we are anticipating those dates and locations later next week.

Additionally, in the coming weeks there will be a dedicated email address set up specifically for my constituents' budget concerns. This email address will go directly to finance committee members. Once this address is up and running, this information will be included in the JFC Republican Update. This will be a useful tool for my constituents like you to reach out directly to the finance committee via email during the public hearing process.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye. . .Rep. Allen Announces Upcoming Listening Session

Representative Scott Allen will be holding a Listening Session Wednesday March 25th at the town of Mukwonago Town Hall located at W320 S8315 Beulah Rd. starting at 6:30pm to 7:30pm.

I am open to hear what folks have to say concerning the proposed state budget as I have no firm positions and I come to this listening session with an open mind. I have been doing my homework on this issue and I want to do what's best for the residents of the 97th Assembly District as well as the people of Wisconsin.

News from Department of Workforce Development

As part of ongoing efforts to help Unemployment Insurance (UI) claimants return to work quickly, the Dept. of Workforce Development (DWD) this month will launch significant improvements to its federally mandated Re-employment (RES) System.

Claimants will be prioritized for level of service required, in person or through the internet, based on an online orientation and assessment tools that all RES participants already complete. New online workshops will deliver RES services for claimants based on need. The workshops include resume building, interview preparation and are available from home computers, mobile devices or the nearest Job Center.

The enhanced RES System is part of DWD's ongoing efforts to help UI claimants move to new employment more quickly through self-service.
