A Note from Rep. Allen

Bucks Fans Rejoice!

Governor Scott Walker officially approved the bipartisan arena deal, a piece of legislation which I voted in favor. Not only will this deal keep the Bucks from leaving Milwaukee, but will help economic development statewide, according to Milwaukee Bucks President Peter Feigin.

Hunger Knows No Season

The 2015 Waukesha Summer GOP Food Drive was a success! Thank you to everyone who participated/donated. Donations were distributed to Oconomowoc and Waukesha food pantries.

Good News Department

Three Wisconsin athletes placed in the 2015 Special Olympics World Games last week. Let us congratulate:

- Alex Guild from De Pere. Alex earned a gold medal in the half-marathon, running his personal best and breaking the American record. He also won the gold in his 4x400 relay and the bronze in the 10,000m event.
- Michael Huebner from Beaver Dam. Michael earned a silver medal in his bowling doubles while receiving a 4th place ribbon in team bowling and a 5th place ribbon in bowling singles.
- Olivia Quigley from Elm Grove. Olivia received national attention as she competed in the games with Stage IV breast cancer. She earned two gold medals, one in the 4x100 relay and the other in the 100m run, as well as the silver in the 200m event.
