Rep. Scott Allen comments on just passed state budget

Madison- Representative Scott Allen (R.-Waukesha) voted in favor of the state budget just passed in the Assembly.

“This is a fiscally responsible budget that protects Wisconsin taxpayers in the context of a lackluster national economy”, says Rep. Allen.

Rep. Allen recognizes five key advantages in the 2015-2017 funding plan.

- The budget holds the line on taxes.
- It is a budget that continues to right-size government.
- It repositions Wisconsin in the marketplace for future growth and prosperity.
- Educational options have been expanded for parents across the state.
- And college costs have been kept in check by once again freezing tuition.
