Fighting Heroin and Opioid Addictions and Supporting Veterans

Madison...Rep. Scott Allen (R-Waukesha) is proud of the legislation approved in the Assembly yesterday that will make Wisconsin an even better place to live, work and raise a family.

Heroin and opioid addiction are impacting communities across the state of Wisconsin. Multiple bills passed the assembly yesterday that will help to reduce the incidence of...

"We must all work together to fight this epidemic of heroin addictions. Yesterday we took some important steps together in this fight," said Rep. Allen.

Also yesterday, the Assembly passed AB441 authored by Rep. Allen. The bill, called the Wisconsin Veterans Employment Initiative, seeks to increase the number of veterans holding permanent state employment positions. The bill will improve the quality of the workforce employed by the State and the quality of service provided to our citizens.

"Veterans of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, or their affiliates, have earned our respect through their accomplishments. The initiative recognizes the value of this education," said Rep. Allen.

Other bills cosponsored by Rep. Allen that passed the Assembly yesterday include a bill that will require a first time drunk driving offenders to appear in court (AB352) and a bill that compels school districts to report crimes that occur on school property (AB517).
