Questions Remain Unanswered on 2020 Election

Rep. Scott Allen (R-Waukesha) released the following statement today:

Questions remain unanswered.

Much information has been uncovered during these eight months from an historic and unprecedented presidential election. There are still so many unanswered questions about the administration of our elections in the State of Wisconsin. Rep. Brandtjen has done a very good job in asking the right questions.

Two things stand out to me about the pursuit of truth in the November 2020 election: 1) if there was no illegal or unethical activity, then why not analyze all of the evidence that may be available?, and 2) organizations (for profit and non-profit) routinely have outside, third-party audits performed to maintain legitimacy with their stakeholders, why would we not want that same kind of legitimacy for the stakeholders of Wisconsin, the voters?

I wholeheartedly support Rep. Brandtjen in her call for evidence to be gathered and an outside, independent audit performed of the voting records of the State of Wisconsin for the November 2020 election.
