Cindi Duchow Sworn-in to State Assembly

Madison, WI – Today, Cindi Duchow (R-Town of Delafield) took the Oath of Office as the State Representative for the 99th Assembly District.

Duchow made the following statement on her swearing-in to the legislature:

It is a great privilege to serve in the state Assembly. I intend to dedicate myself to being a wise steward of the taxpayers and removing the government from the equation when necessary. Ensuring the state has a favorable tax climate, robust economy, and strong education system for all will be of my highest priorities.

I would like to thank my husband Craig and my two wonderful boys, without whom I would not be in the position I am today. I am serving to make this state a better place for families across the state and generations to come.

Representative Duchow will serve on the following Assembly committees: Education, Children and Families, Criminal Justice and Public Safety, and Ways and Means.

Rep. Duchow represents the 99th Assembly District, which includes the communities of Chenequa, Delafield, Dousman, Hartland, Merton, Nashotah, Oconomowoc Lake, Ottawa, and Wales; and portions of Genesee, North Prairie, Oconomowoc, and Summit.
