SUBJECT: Comparative Revenue per Pupil for Selected School Districts

At your request, I am providing information relating to the comparative revenue per pupil statewide as well as for selected school districts.

The following table uses audited annual report data compiled by the Department of Public Instruction to show revenue per pupil for 2013-14. The sources of revenue are property taxes, federal aid, state aid, and local non-property tax revenue. This information is presented for the state as well as for the Beloit, Beloit Turner, and Janesville School Districts.

2013-14 Revenue Per Pupil Using Audited Annual Report Data from DPI

Revenue Source	Statewide	Beloit	Beloit Turner	Janesville
