President Obama Wins Re-Election!

On November 6th, voters across Wisconsin and the United States turned out to vote in the 2012 election. Months of heated debate came to a close as we selected our representatives. Now, I would like to extend my most sincere congratulations to our reelected President Barack Obama!

Under the President's leadership, our country has experienced steady economic growth and expanded rights for women and minorities. The United States have been reestablished as a beacon of hope and liberty for the entire world. The nation thanks President Barack Obama and wishes him a happy and successful second term in office! I would also like to extend my congratulations to Senator-elect Tammy Baldwin. I have no doubt that Congress will benefit from her leadership and ideals. With the impending "fiscal cliff" that threatens both our state and the national economy, President Obama will need the cooperation of Republican nationwide to stop a potentially devastating sequestration. I highly encourage Governor Walker and other Wisconsin Republicans to use their influence to set an example of leadership, responsibility and cooperation. This coming January, I look forward to working with Democrats and Republicans alike. I hope to establish a partnership that will be best for all of Wisconsin and Milwaukee. Overall, this was fantastic week for of the nation!

DONATE TO KEEP THEM WARM!

Prematurity Awareness Month

I have the opportunity to speak at the Prematurity month summit at the Lovell Johnson Quality of Life Center. It is focuses on bringing together the Milwaukee community in order to address the issues of premature birth and infant death. Premature birth (or preterm birth) occurs when the baby is born 3 or more weeks before his or her due date. One out of every eight babies is born premature, and yet public awareness is far too low. There are many medical factors that effect expecting mothers. Health problems like diabetes, high blood pressure, unusual bleeding, and weigh and increase the risk of delivering prematurely. Luckily, there are programs around Milwaukee like Stork's Nest, which aim to help women begin to care for themselves and their babies before the children are born. This includes prenatal care in the mother's first trimester, the ability to earn baby supplies, and establishing routine medical and social service appointments. Call 414-937-2020 for more information. Support mothers!
