Madison – State Senator Dan Feyen (R- Fond du Lac) was unanimously elected today by his Republican Senate colleagues to serve as Assistant Majority Leader of the State Senate for the 2023-2024 Session. He released the following statement on his re-election to this post.

“I am thankful for the support of my colleagues. I look forward to working with my fellow senators to craft a policy agenda and a caucus strategy that can make a difference for all Wisconsinites. It is more important than ever that we act to strengthen our economy and help Wisconsin families and individuals across our great state.”

First elected to the State Senate in 2016, Senator Dan Feyen represents the 18th Senate District, which includes parts of Winnebago, Fond du Lac, and Dodge counties.
