Sen. Stroebel: Prevailing Wage Repeal Must be in the Budget

Madison, WI – Senator Duey Stroebel issued the following statement on recent budget negotiations:

In a positive meeting this afternoon with Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald, I expressed to him my requirement to vote for the budget.

Prevailing wage repeal for local units of government must be included in the budget. This commonsense reform ensures the most efficient use of our taxpayer dollars.

This repeal will save local units of government – counties, schools, towns, villages & cities – at least a half billion dollars the next two years. My commitment is to protect taxpayers and provide relief to local units of government.

All other provisions of the budget are negotiable.
