Testin's Inauguration Ushers in Fresh Outlook for Central Wisconsin 103rd Session of the Wisconsin State Senate Begins

Madison, WI – The Wisconsin State Capitol was buzzing with activity on Tuesday as the members of the 103rd session of the Wisconsin State Legislature were sworn into office. Patrick Testin (Stevens Point) was one of four freshman State Senators to take the oath of office.

"I'm honored to have the opportunity to serve my neighbors in Central Wisconsin," said Testin. "I look forward to approaching Wisconsin's challenges and opportunities with a fresh perspective."

Testin, who will chair the Senate Committee on Workforce Development, Military Affairs, & Senior Issues, will also be holding two in-district inaugural events on Friday, January 13th at the following times and locations:

Portage County Annex, Conf. Rooms 1&2 – 1462 Strong's Ave. Stevens Point – 10:00 A.M.
Monroe County Courthouse, Branch 2 Courtroom – 112 S. Court St. Sparta – 4:00 P.M.

The ceremonies will be conducted by the Honorable Robert Shannon in Stevens Point, and by the Honorable Mark Goodman in Sparta. Members of the media and the public are welcome to attend.
