“On the Job with Patrick Testin” Kicks Off at Gollon Brothers Wholesale Live Bait
Senator Works and Learns Alongside Employees of Stevens Point Area Business

Madison, WI – Last Friday, Senator Patrick Testin (Stevens Point) donned a pair of waders and got to work alongside the employees at Gollon Brothers Wholesale Live Bait, Inc. Throughout the course of the day, the Senator loaded bait onto trucks, waded into a frozen pond to net baitfish, prepared minnows for freezing and shipment, and discussed the ins and outs of the bait business with the employees of the 4th generation family owned business.

“Good paying jobs are available– and many of them are right here in Central Wisconsin,” said Testin. “I enjoyed working with the folks at Gollon Brothers, and getting to learn about the day to day workings of their business. They are on the lookout for new employees, and can especially use help in spring and summer.”

Ben Gollon, a co-owner of the Stevens Point area small business, was glad to have the extra help. “Senator Testin was enthusiastic, and really wanted to learn everything he could about our business,” said Gollon. “I appreciate his willingness to both work and listen. Hopefully by doing this, he can raise awareness of the opportunities here and throughout the state.”
