Senator Kapenga Statement on Right to Work Ruling

(Madison) - State Senator Chris Kapenga (R-Delafield) released the following statement after Dane County Circuit Court Judge William Foust struck down 2015 Act 1, Wisconsin's Right to Work law.

"It's disappointing to see another activist Dane County judge play politics on the bench and throw out a law that has ultimately been upheld by the US Supreme Court. The legal argument that unions have a property right to the wages of workers is not only absurd, but it's wrong. I am confident that a higher court will ultimately uphold the law and reaffirm that every worker should have the freedom to choose whether or not to join a union. This is another instance of a frivolous lawsuit that is an absolute waste of taxpayer dollars."
