Senator Kapenga Hosts Listening Session in Waukesha on Wednesday

Madison, WI – State Senator Chris Kapenga (R-Delafield) will host a listening session with State Representative Adam Neylon (R-Pewaukee) at the Waukesha Public Library on Wednesday, February 27th from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM. The Waukesha Public Library is located at 321 Wisconsin Avenue in Waukesha.

“Listening sessions are a great opportunity for constituents of the 33rd Senate District to stay informed on legislative topics, share ideas, and voice their opinion,” said Senator Kapenga. “I look forward to meeting and hearing from constituents on the issues that are important to them.”

Senator Kapenga has additional listening sessions scheduled for Wednesday, March 27th at the Pauline Haass Public Library in Sussex, Wednesday, April 24th at the Pewaukee Public Library and Wednesday, May 22nd at Delafield City Hall. All sessions run from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM. Constituents that would like to share an opinion or need assistance with state government, but are unable to attend a scheduled listening session are free to contact Senator Kapenga’s office at (608) 266-9174 or Sen.Kapenga@legis.wi.gov.

Senator Kapenga represents the 33rd Senate District, which covers most of central Waukesha County and Lake Country.
