Senator Kapenga Hosts Listening Session in Pewaukee on Wednesday

Madison, WI – State Senator Chris Kapenga (R-Delafield) will host a listening session with State Representative Adam Neylon (R-Pewaukee) at the Pewaukee Public Library on Wednesday, April 24th from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM. The Pewaukee Public Library is located at 210 Main Street.

“I’m looking forward to meeting with my constituents in Pewaukee to give them a legislative update on some of the bills we’ve been working on. It also gives me an opportunity to hear about issues important to them,” said Senator Kapenga.

Senator Kapenga has an additional listening session scheduled for Wednesday, May 22nd at Delafield City Hall. All sessions run from 7:00 PM to 8:00 PM. Constituents that would like to share an opinion or need assistance with state government, but are unable to attend a scheduled listening session are free to contact Senator Kapenga’s office at (608) 266-9174 or Sen.Kapenga@legis.wi.gov.

Senator Kapenga represents the 33rd Senate District, which covers most of central Waukesha County and Lake Country.
