Senator Stroebel: My Priority is to Reduce Wisconsin's Tax Burden

April 25th is Wisconsin's Tax Freedom Day – Stroebel committed to reducing taxes

Madison, WI – State Senator Duey Stroebel issued the following statement regarding Tax Freedom Day 2015. Saturday was the Wisconsin Tax Freedom Day meaning Wisconsinites have paid their tax liability with every dollar earned so far.

In Wisconsin, we continue to have a reputation as a high-tax state. There are only twelve states with later "Tax Freedom" dates – 37 states pay off their taxes sooner. My priority is to move up Wisconsin's Tax Freedom Day.

My Republican colleagues and I have done considerable work the last four years to improve our climate. I am committed to ending the personal property taxes on businesses, improving the income tax code, and reducing property taxes.

Taxes and economic growth go hand in hand. With an improved tax climate, Wisconsin can spur a faster growing economy to create jobs and increase wages.

Senator Duey Stroebel represents the 20th Senate District which includes parts of Ozaukee, Washington, Fond du Lac, Calumet and Sheboygan Counties. He lives in Cedarburg with his wife Laura and eight children.
