Fitzgerald: Legislative Republicans Release GAB Reform

[Madison, WI] Today, Assembly and Senate Republicans released legislation overhauling the state Government Accountability Board (GAB) and Assembly leadership announced their intention to take the bill up in committee shortly. Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald released the following statement:

“I am proud to unveil legislation that will finally overhaul the obviously compromised GAB and put an end to the long series of abuses within the agency.

“I commend Senators Vukmir and LeMahieu as well as Assembly Republicans for the months of work put into this legislation. I believe that the model we have created will work in a fair and bipartisan manner to safeguard the integrity of Wisconsin’s elections and hold our government’s representatives accountable.

“I welcome the public input this proposal will receive in the coming weeks.”

The draft legislation has been circulated for co-sponsorship under LRB 3073.

Senate Majority Leader Scott Fitzgerald (R-Juneau) represent the 13th Senate District, which covers portions of Dodge, Jefferson, Waukesha, Washington, Dane, and Columbia counties.
