REP. PRISCILLA A. PRADO ANNOUNCES COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

MADISON, Wis. – State Representative Priscilla A. Prado (D-Milwaukee) has been assigned to serve on three committees for the 2025-2026 legislative session. Appointed by Democratic Leader, Rep. Greta Neubauer (D-Racine), Rep. Prado will serve on two newly established Assembly committees, the Committee on Commerce, and the Committee on State and Federal Relations. In addition, she will also be a member of the Joint Committee on Information Policy and Technology.

“It is an honor to be appointed to all three committees, and as an entrepreneur, I am particularly eager to be of service on the Committee on Commerce. It is especially exciting to be a member of two new committees that will lay the groundwork for future issues in these sectors. I’m hopeful that these conversations will be essential in passing legislation that makes a difference in our communities. I can’t wait to be an influential voice on these committees and advocate for the needs of my district.”
