Rep. Robyn Vining on Gov. Evers' 2023-2025 Budget Proposal: A Budget is a Moral Document

MADISON – Governor Tony Evers delivered the state budget address tonight, introducing his proposed 2023-2025 biennial state budget. Representative Robyn Vining (D-Wauwatosa) issued the following statement in response:

“A budget is a moral document—it reflects our values. Tonight Governor Evers delivered a budget proposal that reflects the values and needs of my constituents—a state budget that focuses on mental healthcare; safe, healthy schools; affordable healthcare; clean water; affordable housing; fair assurance of the constitutional right to vote; a promise made and kept to deliver a middle class tax cut; healthy meals, and more!”

“My constituents spoke and Governor Evers listened. I am particularly excited that some of my work is included in the budget: Universal Changing Stations, Go Big For Small Business, historic investments in mental health as well as healthcare for postpartum women, violence prevention and intervention, public school funding and assistance to local municipalities, increased funding for autism services, and more! I am very grateful to our governor –The People’s Governor– for crafting a budget that addresses the needs of my constituents, and Wisconsin! Thank you, Governor Evers!”

“I look forward to discussing this budget proposal over the next several months, and passing a budget that reflects the values of the people, and addresses what the people of Wisconsin truly need. The Governor has made a plea for bipartisanship and I join him in that hope. May we find common ground for the common good so that we can move forward, together.”
