Rep. Kalan Haywood Re-elected as Assembly Assistant Democratic Leader

Madison, Wis. – Today, Representative Kalan Haywood (D-Milwaukee) was re-elected to the position of Assistant Democratic Leader by the Assembly Democratic Caucus. He was initially elected in February and has served in the role since. He joins Democratic Leader Rep. Greta Neubauer (D-Racine), Caucus Chair Rep. Lisa Subeck (D-Madison), Vice Caucus Chair Rep. Jill Billings (D-La Crosse), Caucus Secretary Rep. Kristina Shelton (D-Green Bay), and Caucus Sgt.-At-Arms Rep. Lee Snodgrass (D-Appleton) as the Democratic Caucus leadership team. In response, Rep. Haywood released the following statement:

“I’d like to thank my colleagues for giving me another opportunity to serve the Assembly Democratic Caucus and the people of Wisconsin in this capacity for the upcoming legislative session. In addition, I’d like to congratulate our entire leadership team on their re-elections. I look forward to leading our caucus with them this session and building a strong foundation for the future.”

“As the Assistant Leader, my priority is to continue serving the caucus by providing leadership and support to members, as well as amplifying our progressive agenda that seeks to benefit all Wisconsinites holistically. The people of Wisconsin deserve a legislature that believes the will of the people should be the law of the land. I am eager to work with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to ensure working-class people are given a voice in the legislature. It is time for common ground to be found and polarized politics to be set aside for authentic, meaningful discussions. We must return civility to our law-making process and openly discuss policies and ideas by their need, strengths, and merit, rather than through the lens of partisan tribalism. I’m optimistic that the legislature can work together to find solutions for the challenges our state faces for the benefit of the people we represent.”
