

Local business of the Month:

C-Viche

Ceviche, an appetizer of marinated seafood, and other South American foods would be served at the proposed the restaurant and bar to be located at 2165 S. Kinnickinnic Ave. in Bay View, the former Lovely Salon.

Karlos Soriano, a native of Peru, and Paco Villar, who grew up near Mexico City, will co-own C-Viche. They met 10 years ago as employees of Rudy's.

The restaurant will serve both lunch and dinner with emphasize on affordable small plate dishes that can be shared between three people. The portions will be larger than most tapas or small plates and many are based on family recipes.

Soriano and Villar hope to open in November.

