

Neighbor of the Month:

Bill Sell

Bill Sell has lived in Bay View since 1984. He is an avid biker, transit activist, and lover of photo. He owns The Last Word, a transcription business in downtown Milwaukee founded in 1976. Bill is also a life-long civil rights and anti-war advocate.

He is the founding member of the Bay View Neighborhood Association and member of the Clean Transit Subcommittee, Bicycle Federation of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Transit Riders Union, and more. He also chairs the Transit Services Advisory Committee. In 2007, he was named the Shepherd Express Community Activist of the Year for all of his efforts.

Thank you, Bill, for your overwhelming support and creation of groups and sense of community in Bay View!
