

Nonprofit of the Month:

Ex Fabula

"Committed to strengthening community bonds through the art of storytelling"

Ex Fabula uses true, personal stories to teach about people's common bonds and strengthen community. They partner with local radio stations to broadcast the stories and hold storytelling workshops. The workshops are used in schools, nonprofits, corporate events, and more to help group members find common ground.

Click here for more information.