

Nonprofit of the Month: Sojourner Family Peace Center

Established in 1975, the Sojourner family Peace Center is Wisconsin's largest nonprofit provider of domestic violence prevention and intervention. It is also one of the first in the nation to provide holistic services for all ages under one roof.

Sojourner offers emergency shelter, both one-on-one and group support for survivors, legal advocacy, housing and employment assistance, financial literacy, parent education, and more.

All Sojourner services are free, confidential, and available in English, Spanish, Hmong, and Russian.

If you are the victim of domestic violence, don't be afraid to ask for help. Call (414)276-1911

For more information or to volunteer, click here.