Rep. Jessie Rodriguez Sworn into Seventh Term in the Wisconsin Assembly

MADISON – State Representative Jessie Rodriguez (R-Oak Creek) was sworn into her seventh term in the Wisconsin Assembly on Monday afternoon. The Inauguration Day Ceremony begins the 107th Session in the Wisconsin State Legislature.

“I am so honored that my neighbors have elected me to return to Madison and continue representing the 21st Assembly District this session,” began Rep. Rodriguez.

Following legislative redistricting, the 21st Assembly District includes all of the City of Oak Creek, one ward in the City of Greenfield, and a portion of the City of Milwaukee.

“As I talked to members of my community this past fall, I made it a priority to listen and hear what the important issues concerning my neighbors are,” Rep. Rodriguez shared. “Based on my conversations with them, I intend to continue to focus on growing our economy and making our communities safer.”

“I’m eager and ready to get to work on these priorities from my constituents,” concluded Rep. Rodriguez.

The representative’s office is located at 306 East in the Wisconsin State Capitol in Madison. She can be reached at (608) 237-9121 or by e-mail at Rep.Rodriguez@legis.wisconsin.gov. Her legislative website can be found at RepRodriguez.com.
