Rep. Jessie Rodriguez Announces In-District Budget Listening Sessions

OAK CREEK – Today, Representative Jessie Rodriguez (R-Oak Creek) announced that she will be holding three budget listening sessions in the 21st Assembly District. These listening sessions are meant for constituents to be able to give input on the state’s 2021-2023 biennial budget.

There will be two in-person sessions and one virtual:

Monday, April 12th
Noon-1:30pm
AND
5:30-7:00pm
MATC-Oak Creek Campus
Lecture Hall (Room A241)
6665 S Howell Ave
Oak Creek, WI 53154

Use the Howell Ave driveway and park in Student Lot B or Student Lot C. Use the main entrance and proceed to the Lecture Hall (Room A241). MATC is requiring that all in attendance wear a mask and will be subjected to a temperature check upon entry. We will also be limiting capacity inside the room and will have an overflow room available if necessary.

Thursday, April 15th
5:30-6:30pm
VIRTUAL

If you live in the 21st Assembly District, please submit your name, address, and any questions you may have using the Representative’s legislative website at RepRodriguez.com and click on the “Budget Town Hall Meetings” icon on the top left hand side if you would like to ask a question or watch the meeting. We will send you a link on the afternoon of April 15th.

These are in addition to the public hearings held by the Joint Committee on Finance (JFC), which will take place on April 9th in Whitewater (UW-Whitewater), April 21st in Rhinelander (Hodag Dome), April 22nd in Menomonie (UW-Stout), and April 28th virtually.
