Katsma Begins Second Term in State Legislature

Madison—Representative Terry Katsma (R–Oostburg) has officially begun his second term representing Wisconsin’s 26th Assembly District in the state legislature. Rep. Katsma and his Assembly colleagues took the oath of office in a ceremony today using the same Bible that was used in 1836 to swear in Wisconsin’s first governor, Henry Dodge.

“I am humbled and honored to have been entrusted with the duty of representing the people of Sheboygan County in the State Assembly,” said Rep. Katsma. “As our beautiful State Capitol turns 100 years old this year, I promise that I will continue to serve the people of Wisconsin with honor befitting our proud history.”

In the 2017-18 legislative session, Rep. Katsma will serve as chairman of the Assembly Committee on Financial Institutions; as vice-chairman of the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means; and as a member of the Assembly Committee on Housing and Real Estate, the Assembly Committee on Insurance, the Assembly Committee on Workforce Development and the newly formed Assembly Committee on Federalism and Interstate Relations. Rep. Katsma has also been recently appointed to serve on the State of Wisconsin Building Commission and will continue to serve in his present role on the Governor’s Council on Financial Literacy.

“I’m really excited to get to work on all of these topics. I think there is a lot of opportunity in every one of these areas to make Wisconsin an even better place to live and work, and I’m eager to work with my colleagues to begin making progress right away.”
