Rep. Swearingen Applauds Governor Walker's State of the State Address

Madison- Today, Rep. Rob Swearingen (R- Rhinelander) released the following statement after Governor Scott Walker addressed the Wisconsin State Legislature for his sixth State of the State address.

"For the sixth year the state of the state is strong. Republican reforms have led to the lowest unemployment levels in 14 years, increased job numbers, reduced taxes for hardworking Wisconsin residents and froze tuition costs for Wisconsin students. Additionally, Governor Walker and Wisconsin Republicans will continue to fight opiate and heroine abuse by creating and funding treatment programs. I was encouraged by the Governor Walker's speech and believe that Wisconsin continues to be heading in the right direction," stated Rep. Swearingen.

Rep. Swearingen continued, "I will continue to work to make state government smaller and more efficient."
