State Assembly Honors Local Bob Belling as First Responder of the Year

Belling joins Rep. Born in Madison to accept award

Madison- Today, the Wisconsin State Assembly recognized a First Responder from each of the 99 Assembly Districts. Rep. Mark Born (R-Beaver Dam) honored Bob Belling from the Town of Lomira.

“I am proud to recognize Bob as our community’s First Responder of the Year,” said Born. “His dedication and commitment to our area does not go unnoticed and we are all very blessed to have people like Bob serving our community.”

Bob has been a volunteer firefighter with the Knowles Fire Department for over 40 years and has served as Fire Chief for 26 years. He is also a first responder with Brownsville Emergency Medical Service.

“The 39th Assembly District, and the rest of our state, is grateful to have such selfless individuals protecting our communities every single day,” said Born. “I was happy to join the rest of my colleagues to say “thank you” to those who run towards danger to keep the rest of us safe.”

Bob was joined by his wife, Sharon, to accept his award. The Assembly recognized the “First Responder of the Year” recipients during their floor session this afternoon.
