Rep. Born Statement on Assembly Appointments to Joint Committee on Finance

Speaker Vos announces new appointments, returning members to the committee

Madison- Representative Mark Born (R-Beaver Dam) released the following statement after Speaker Vos announced his appointments to the Joint Committee on Finance.

“I am thrilled about the team we have put together to lead our Assembly Republican team through the budget process. I congratulate my colleagues Representative Jessie Rodriguez and Representative Tony Kurtz on their new appointments. I am confident that they will both bring fresh and valuable perspectives to the committee.

I am also excited to welcome back Vice-Chair Amy Loudenbeck, Representative Terry Katsma and Representative Shannon Zimmerman. I appreciate the value and background they all bring to our team, and look forward to continuing to work with them through this process.

There is no question the upcoming state budget will have its fair share of challenges. However, I know this group has the knowledge and the will to step up to the challenge of putting together a strong budget that prioritizes the taxpayers and moves Wisconsin forward.”
