Rep. Conley to Retire from Wisconsin State Assembly

JANESVILLE –Rep. Sue Conley (D-Janesville) has announced that she will not seek re-election to the Wisconsin State Assembly. Rep. Conley issued the following statement on her retirement:

“I will not run for re-election this fall to the Wisconsin State Assembly. It is an incredible honor to represent and serve the people of Janesville. I am grateful to all who have shared their thoughts, ideas and suggestions with me to move our state forward. Your words and heartfelt concerns accompany me to the Capitol. Every perspective is important to me and I did my best to listen intently and fairly represent all who live in the 44th Assembly District.

“Thank you for your trust in me, your friendship and encouragement. Please know that I will continue to work for you in Madison throughout 2024. See you around town!”
