Rep. Ann Roe, Sen. Mark Spreitzer, and Rep. Brienne Brown Announce Budget Listening Sessions in Janesville

JANESVILLE, Wis. - Today, Representative Ann Roe (D-Janesville), Representative Brienne Brown (D-Whitewater), and State Senator Mark Spreitzer (D-Beloit) announced listening sessions in Janesville to discuss Wisconsin's 2025-2027 Executive State Budget with constituents.

"The Governor's budget values our children's futures, clean water, quality and affordable healthcare, good roads, supports our farmers, and helps make our cost of living more affordable. I invite any and all community members to come to our budget listening sessions, your input is truly critical," said Representative Roe.

"The 2025 budget presents new opportunities to invest in our state's priorities. Governor Evers proposed a budget that will help our kids stay safe and get a quality education, keep taxes low for middle class families, and make meaningful steps to cut costs for all Wisconsinites. I hope that residents will attend these listening sessions to hear about the budget process and share their thoughts about the Governor's budget proposal," said Senator Spreitzer.
