Nominations Now Open for the 51st Assembly District's First Responder Award

MADISON –Rep. Todd Novak (Dodgeville) is pleased to accept nominations for the 51st Assembly District's 2021-23 First Responder Award.

Nominations could include a police officer or sheriff's deputy, a firefighter, or any level of EMS provider (paramedic, EMT, first responder) and can be either a paid or volunteer public servant.

Last session, Al Michek of Highland, was honored with the First Responder Award in our district. At the time of the award Al was the longest serving EMT in Wisconsin with over 48 years of service.

You can nominate a deserving person for a variety of reasons including:

- A specific heroic action;
- A significant professional achievement;
- Something special they do for the community during the course of their work;
- His or her body of work over time; and/or
- His or her length of service.

To have your local hero be eligible, please submit all nomination forms no later than Friday, October 8th, 2021. Nomination forms are available at RepNovak.com, by calling (608) 266-7502, or by emailing Rep.Novak@legis.wisconsin.gov.

A first responder from within the Assembly district will then be selected in October and they will be invited to a Hometown Heroes recognition in the Assembly Chamber during the week of October 26th.
