The Audacity of Scott Walker Governor Gives Desperate, Election Year Address

MADISON – Today, Governor Walker delivered his 2018 State of the State address. As Governor Walker begins his 8th year in office, and an election year, we are witnessing a desperate career politician who will say and do anything to be re-elected. Beginning with his failed 70 day presidential bid, Walker has flip flopped over and over again. Just in the past month, the Governor has stolen Democratic proposals, gone back on previous positions, and proposed millions of dollars in new spending with no plan to pay for it. Assembly Democratic Leader Representative Gordon Hintz (D-Oshkosh) released the following statement after the address.

“This speech sounded a lot like a going out of business sale. I’ve never seen a Governor as driven by political polling as this one. He knows as well as anyone that the people of Wisconsin are no longer buying his divisive, failing agenda. Governor Walker is taking ideas from Democrats and flip flopping on promises made in the hopes that we will forget his partisan past,” stated Rep. Hintz. “With only one month left in our legislative session, these plans are nothing more than an attempt to distract from his record.”
