Rep. Ramthun and Rep Wichgers: Let There Be Light #4

MADISON - State Representative Timothy Ramthun and State Representative Chuck Wichgers released the following statement regarding evidence surrounding election integrity obstruction:

“In the January 7th AP news, Speaker Vos stated, ‘There is zero chance, as long as I am Speaker, that we are going to have the Legislature take over awarding electors and all those kind of things.’ We question why he feels he has sole control over the actions of the Legislature.”

“As Chair of the Assembly Organization Committee, the Speaker voted to give himself authority to appoint former Justice Gableman as Special Council, with an initial contract stating all investigation elements report to himself, and shall be funded by taxpayer dollars. The contract should state that the Special Council should report to the Assembly Committee on Campaign and Elections.”

“Speaker Vos made a 2nd extension of the Gableman contract without including oversight by the Campaign and Elections Committee chaired by Janel Brandtjen. On January 6th, Eric Kardall filed 5 appeals which include accusations of election bribery against the WEC in the ‘WI 5’ municipalities. Also, in Milwaukee County on December 15th, case # 30952, which claims ballots were printed for Biden by the Milwaukee Clerks office, was filed. With the addition of the Wisconsin Voters Alliance extending Racine County’s issue of elder abuse of votes into 19 institutions across ten counties, it can be interpreted that the purpose of this extension is for the Speaker to remain the one solely informed on developments.”

“With significant amounts of evidence continuing to be revealed, we need to address why it appears the Speaker is doing all he can to be the sole point of contact for the Gableman investigation. This is far from open and transparent, and could be the reason that all election integrity efforts are not being properly addressed. We need to see a better utilization of all resources.”

5 Dec 15th Milwaukee case # 30952 available upon request: On December 15th 2021 a mandamus was filed in Circuit Court in Milwaukee County claiming ballots were printed in the Milwaukee Clerk's Office for Biden along with many other accusations. It claims memory sticks were used with the illegal ballots by nefarious actors who had access to voting tabulators and city employees were told to follow directions of CTCL. It claims the clerk's office accommodated overnight guests and gave access to computers in the clerk's office and that it was witnessed by more than one whistleblower, one being a police officer.
